ICOP

Founded in 1920 by the Petrucco family, ICOP is an underground engineering company active nationally and internationally in the sectors of special foundations, microtunneling, and maritime works. The first Benefit Corporation in the sector, ICOP operates in the United States and in the main European markets supporting private and public actors – with a focus on consolidated relationships – in projects with high engineering content related to the development of critical infrastructures (Paris, Copenhagen metros, etc.) and in the strengthening of energy and water transport networks (gas pipelines, aqueducts). The Group has its headquarters in Basiliano (UD) and employs over 1,100 people worldwide.
